

PETA

Every Thanksgiving, two of us are pardoned by the president. The other 45 million are condemned to a horrible life and unconstitutionally cruel and unusual punishment—execution.

Pardon ME!

What are the charges to warrant this mass extermination? That's the best part—we aren't accused of anything! We didn't shoot anybody, and we didn't blow anything up—we were just born in the wrong body, in the wrong place at the wrong time.

They burn off our beaks, chop off our toes, and raise us in sheds by the thousands so we can barely walk and breathe. Apparently not convinced that that's cruel and unusual enough, they also clamp our legs into shackles, slit our throats, and dunk us into vats of scalding water.

Since only two of us can count on Mr. Bush, we hope we can count on you to grant us a stay of execution and give us your own personal pardon. We won't have to walk the green mile if you make it a green menu.

This year, make it a vegetarian Thanksgiving.
