Dear Mr. Trump,

We wanted to tell you about a new product that we have come up with for hunters that we're certain will be of interest to a seasoned hunter and astute businessman such as yourself.

It's called Huntsman Condoms—a condom designed especially for hunters. Each camouflage enclosed latex condom is engineered to the highest standards and makes no compromises on pleasure, safety, or performance. It's a piece of safety equipment that every hunter should be equipped with.

We've attached some free samples for you to try out.

Please do let us know if you like them—we'd love to discuss partnering with you to make them an even greater success.

Thanks.

Chat soon,

Team Huntsman
