Dear Ms. April,

We at PETA are sending you a great big thank-ewe for choosing to create a cruelty-free, vegan replicant version of a shearling jacket for Ryan Gosling in Blade Runner 2049. In every one of PETA's many investigations into the wool industry, we've found that sheep are routinely punched, kicked, stomped on, and badly cut up for their wool. You've so beautifully shown that cruelty-free materials are the way of the future—starting in the present!—and people will flock to wear them.

As a small token of our huge appreciation, we're sending you delicious vegan sheep-shaped chocolates.

With kind regards,

Lisa Lange
